DAMA DE NOCHE

Dame de Noche is a stunning Oyster 82 luxuriously appointed with teak planked soles and neutral soft furnishings including leather giving a light and airy and contemporary feel to the interior spaces.

The Oyster 82 offers versatile and surprisingly spacious living areas comparable to a much larger design. The upper salon is window height providing great views with a large table for inside dining. The lower salon is a great spot for the library or watching a movie.

Dame de Noche can accommodate six guests in three cabins each with an ensuite head with shower. The main cabin has a centerline double berth with a private access to the aft deck. The Starboard cabin has a double berth and the Port cabin two side by side twin beds.

The yacht features full hydraulic sail handling with in-mast furling. The cockpit is split into separate crew and guest areas. The guest cockpit is over 3m long and has a clear central walkway aft, giving access to the helm positions and side decks. There are two large cockpit tables for exterior dining.

CREW

Adonis and Nadia Vlachopoulos

Adonis and Nadia have been working as a captain chef team for the past 14 years. They met and fell in love in the beautiful Magaliesburg Mountains in South Africa 28 years ago. They have been fortunate enough to sail around the Mediterranean, Caribbean, Pacific North West Canada and the West Coast of America.

Adonis who was born and raised in South Africa in a Greek household is a certified and experienced Yacht Master Ocean Skipper and has been professionally sailing for the past 24 years. In 2006 he worked as a camera man in Greece filming a sailing documentary. He spent 2 years as a sailing instructor and then another 6 years chartering around the beautiful Mediterranean islands before moving onto private yachts together with Nadia.

Over the past 14 years, Nadia who was also born and raised in South Africa with a background in health and fitness gained her knowledge in global cuisine as they sailed from country to country. As a keen student, Nadia spent her free time cooking with other chefs, locals and attending cooking schools. Her Mediterranean cooking style ranges from healthy to decadent, making sure she finds the perfect balance for each guest.

Together their hobbies and passions are all very much linked to their profession of sailing, cooking and entertaining people from all over the world. Their ultimate goal is to ensure an unforgettable sailing holiday, filled with positive, exciting new experiences for all aboard.

Adonis and Nadia will be joined by a mate to assist with sailing and hospitality.
