Encore is a beautiful Oyster 62 which has been well maintained and fully renovated by a new owner. She offers comfort and luxury under sail with hydraulic in-mast furling and twin helms which are separate from the main cockpit allowing guests to relax whilst underway without being disturbed.

Below deck you will find a light and airy interior beautifully finished in Maple. Guests can comfortably relax in the spacious Saloon with a Large round settee with an oval table and two swivel armchairs.

Encore offers comfortable accommodation for up to four guests or six on request with three beautifully crafted guest cabins. The owners stateroom with en-suite shower and head has a large double berth complete with dressing table and plenty of storage space. A staircase allows guests their own private access to the aft deck.

A mid-ships starboard cabin provides two bunk berths which share a head with the forward port cabin. The starboard forward cabin offers a comfortable double berth and en-suite shower and head. The crew are located in the port forward bunk cabin.

Encore has recently undergone refit to include all new mattresses and bedding, new galley counter tops, new sink, and stove. New interior upholstery, curtains and blind systems to all cabins. New fresh water electric heads. Replaced exterior teak deck, new sails , standing and running rigging . All canvas for the bimini, dodger and cockpit cushions

New Bluetooth outlets with USB and iPod jack and iPod docking station in salon and cabins. All new navigational instruments and chart plotter.

CREW

Zach Meyer

Zach's passion for sailing first took root in his home state of Washington, sailing, racing and living aboard boats around the state's beautiful Puget Sound. Being raised in the Pacific Northwest instilled in him a deep appreciation for nature which he now loves to share with his guests on charter.

Since then his sailing adventures have taken him around the world, cruising guests around the Pacific ports of Central America and delivering yachts along the East coast of the states and the Caribbean. He currently holds a Master of Yachts 200 license and looks forward to hosting your next sailing adventure! Zach's other interests include chess, painting, and guitar playing.

Amy

Amy is a passionate world traveler having explored numerous countries and cultures across the globe. She has turned her love of travel and adventure into a career, sharing these experiences with her guests. From hanging with polar bears in the arctic with National Geographic Lodges to more recently cooking up delicious meals and sailing with clients on the Pacific coast throughout Central America.

She holds an enthusiastic disposition for catering to the needs of others and nourishing the appetite of each guests' experiences. Aside from sailing and travel Amy enjoys poetry the arts and freelancing as a professionally trained masseuse. She looks forward to sharing with you these pristine waters surrounding some of the most beautiful islands in the world.
